charles nathan riddlehoover examines the lord s prayer in matthew s gospel focusing on the prayer s centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the sermon on the mount and subsequently the prayer itself riddlehoover argues that the lord s prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the sermon on the mount and the means through which disciples of jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines in turn the sermon on the mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the lord s prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of jesus whilst the centrality of the lord s prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth riddlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers riddlehoover s examination of the relationship between the sermon and prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality

if any one will piously and soberly consider the sermon which our lord jesus christ spoke on the mount as we read it in the gospel according to matthew i think that he will find in it so far as regards the highest morals a perfect standard of the christian life and this we do not rashly venture to promise but gather it from the very words of the lord himself for the sermon itself is brought to a close in such a way that it is clear there are in it all the precepts which go to mould the life for thus he speaks therefore whosoever heareth these words of mine and doeth them i will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock and the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house and it fell not for it was founded upon a rock aeterna press
